Activities Descriptions

City/Cemetery/Garden District Tour: Board your deluxe coach in the French Quarter and follow the history of New Orleans' expansion up Esplanade Avenue. Learn about the tradition of above ground burial as you explore St. Louis Cemetery #3. Cross Bayou St. John into City Park, with its museums, attractions and sculpture gardens, nestled among picturesque lagoons, bayous and groves of ancient live oaks, some more than 800 years old. Explore the south shore of Lake Pontchartrain, then continue on to St. Charles Avenue, home to Audubon Park. Follow the route of streetcars and Mardi Gras parades to the Garden District, for a guided stroll.

"City of New Orleans" Jazz Lunch Cruise: Enjoy an authentic riverboat experience on a leisurely, two-hour cruise on the mighty Mississippi. Board your riverboat to the delightful tunes of the Steam Calliope. Experience the sights and sounds of river life that enchanted characters of history and literature - like Mark Twain's Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer - and see the bustling activity of America's second-largest port!

"City of New Orleans" Dinner Jazz Cruise: Step aboard an authentic steam-powered sternwheelers for a memorable cruise around New Orleans on the Mississippi River. Hear stories of the Big Easy's rich history, sit back, relax and enjoy the New Orleans atmosphere as the smooth jazz of the world-acclaimed Dukes of Dixieland fills your ears. Enjoy a wonderful Dinner Buffet while sailing. This 2-hour cruise from the heart of the French Quarter will take you along the graceful Mississippi River.

Oak Alley Plantation Tour: Experience the grandeur of New Orleans' antebellum south on a half-day tour of Oak Alley Plantation. Take a journey through time to the manicured estate and into the gorgeous home, built in 1839. View stunning architecture, oak-lined esplanades, and enduring sugar cane fields while learning about the plantation's fascinating - and often somber - histories from expert guides.

Swamp & Bayou Tour: Nowhere is Louisiana's wildlife more abundant than in the swamps and bayous of New Orleans. Take a boat ride through these swamps and bayous and be on the lookout for alligators, raccoons, snakes, turtles and native birds. Hear stories from your guide about local Cajun culture and the mysteries of the swamps and bayous.

The Court of Two Sisters: It is more than a restaurant - it's a legend. Enjoy luscious Creole and Cajun cuisine. Pass through our Charm Gates. Make a wish in the Devil's Wishing Well. And hear the story of Emma and Bertha, the two sisters who ran a notions shop here once upon a time in the French Quarter. The Court of Two Sisters has become known worldwide for its live Jazz Brunch, romantic Creole dinners, friendly service and beautiful, open-air courtyard.

Ghosts & Spirits Walking Tour: Hear the eerie tales and dark secrets and learn the real history of colorful characters who lived, died and have chosen to remain in the French Quarter. Follow their shadows down cobbled alleys, through streets aglow with gas lamps and feel the mythical presence that makes New Orleans the most haunted city in America.

Craft Cocktail Walking Tour: Start at the Carriageway Bar at The Court of Two Sisters Restaurant, world-famous for its jazz brunch and courtyard canopied by a 130-year-old wisteria vine. Relax in the former residence of Antoine Peychaud, the Creole apothecary who patented herbal Peychaud's Bitters, the key ingredient in the Sazerac, America's first cocktail. Then visit an authentic one-time pirate's hangout, and meet the "green fairy" known as Absinthe, the mystical herbal elixir that induced intoxicating creativity in many authors, artists, poets and musicians. End the tour at Fritzel's jazz pub featuring the who's who of New Orleans jazz, drawing jazz aficionados from around the world.
